DUVALL in the 1960's and 70's

Long time area resident Thomas Matthiesen will discuss this remarkable period and its lasting impact on the town's culture and economy.

Monday October 7

7:30 PM

At The Duvall Visitor and Centennial Center

15619 Main Street

It Was A Really Rainy (but Fabulous!) Heritage Festival

We were impressed by the hardy souls who joined us on Saturday, September 28th, for our annual outdoor Heritage Festival. As many news outlets stated, it was one of the rainiest September days on record, if not the rainiest. But in spite of the unrelenting torrential downpour, nearly 200 visitors turned out to celebrate! And we learned a few things about ourselves.

That Duvall residents are tough.

That when it's soggy outside, we move indoors, and the house and its outbuildings come to life.

And that we have some of the best volunteers and performers out there.

Thank you to all who made it happen. We're looking forward to seeing you next year - In the sun!

SPIRIT OF DUVALL

THE FIRST 100 YEARS

Ever wonder...

- ...how Duvall first became a town?
- ...why the Fire Department flips pancakes?
- ...what really happened at that first piano drop?
- ...how the town has kept its charm all these years?

Come join the town for a "historic" movie night to find out!
